

The Alliance for Better Long Term Care Presents Director Stenning with the Mark A. Sjoberg Justice Award

At the 33rd annual meeting of the Alliance for Better Long Term Care on November 28, Kathleen Heren, the state of Rhode Island's Long Term Care Ombudsman, presented the Mark A. Sjoberg Justice Award to BHDDH Director Craig Stenning.

According to Ombudsman Heren, the award was given to Director Stenning "in gratitude and respect for his many years of dedication, tireless advocacy, genuine compassion and commitment to the developmentally disabled citizens of Rhode Island."

Founded in 1979, the Alliance helps protect the rights of elderly and disabled persons who live in long term care settings and those who receive licensed health care or hospice services in the home. The organization's mission is to improve the quality of life and health care of residents of long term care facilities, assisted living facilities, and those who receive licensed health care or hospice in the home.
